

WIDE OPEN 2022 Narrandera - ARTIST CALLOUT

Narrandera Arts & Creative Network invites artists and curators to submit proposals for solo or group exhibitions at the Narrandera Arts & Community Centre (NACC) during 2022.

A unique opportunity has arisen due to the temporary relocation of the Narrandera Visitor Information service into the carpeted room of the NACC. Narrandera Shire Council is allowing NACNet free use of the larger room to support a series of exhibitions or residencies during 2022. Narrandera Community Bank is our major sponsor so we are excited about what we can offer in 2022. The project is open to a diversity of art forms including installation, sound work, sculpture – try us. Your work does not have to be for sale.

Callout Closes midnight Sunday 16 January 2022. Yes, we've extended the deadline.

- Cost to artist to exhibit – Free
- Time available for bump in-bump out and exhibition is one calendar month – varies 28 days through 31 days. January is confirmed.
- Artist may wish to share space with another artist. Please indicate in your application. If one artist is taking the role of curator please confirm in your expression of interest.

What NACNet provides:

- Modest launch – nibbles, drinks. Artist is free to contribute to enhance if desired.
- Volunteer support to open when Visitor Information staff not in attendance
- Limited support for bump in bump out.

What artists contribute:

- Provide Artists talk, or conversation facilitation by NACNet
- Provide Workshop or demonstration (optional)
- Complete Setup and pack-up of all works within calendar month. No works to be left on site.
- Labels for all works with price and phone details (or marked NFS) – NACNet will facilitate this.
- Deal directly with potential purchasers of work.

NB: Visitor Information staff will not be involved in the exhibition in any way. You will be given a NACNet contact so any unexpected issues to be dealt with.
